

PROOF OF SUCCESSFUL TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Supervisory Officer's Qualification Program

This statement must be completed by a Supervisory Officer (Director, Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent) of a District School Board or, for those whose teaching experience has been outside of Ontario, an appropriate Supervisory Officer (Reg.176/10). For teachers whose experience has been with a First Nations Education Authority or with a private school, the Ontario College of Teachers requires this form to be signed by a Supervisory Officer with the Ontario Ministry of Education.

Applicants for the SOQP must provide proof of five years of successful teaching experience in a school providing elementary or secondary education.

The teaching experience must have been completed for one of the following: an Ontario district school board, a private school teaching the Ontario curriculum, the Department of Indian and Northern Affairs, a band council, or an education authority of a band.

Experience at a University or Community College is not recognized. A principal cannot be the signing authority.
